

PPC Minutes
March 15, 2017

Members Present: Father Loseke, Megan Furstenau, Kevin Bosak, Kathy Bigelow, Steve Schrad, Chris Poutre, Esther Sindelar, Dan Leonard, and Linda Uzendoski

Member absent: Mike Wojtalewicz

Current business:

The group picture was postponed.

The Disciple-Maker's Initiative survey has had about 350 responses. An e-mail will be sent to all Parishioners, with the DMI link, as a reminder to complete the survey if they have not done so. The survey ends March 19, Sunday.

The Parish Pastoral Plan has been extended 1 more year.

The fish fries have been successful; more help is always appreciated.

The Knights of Columbus and Women's Spirituality Day have been highlighted after Masses the last 2 weeks. 40 women have registered for Women's Spirituality Day. St. Vincent de Paul, Religious Formation, and Youth Group to follow.

Flock Note, a text message and e-mail service for churches, would provide a consistent look for all communication throughout the Diocese. We will continue to explore its possibilities.

Voice of the Parish: Megan has had queries about absence of children's liturgy during Mass. Father will explore some ideas.

The Archdiocese has purchased land for a new Parish at 114th and highway 370. There are no immediate plans to build.

Scott Kincaid, who built the Cross in the Narthex, has volunteered to build a storage shed for St. Charles at a reduced cost. The plans and numbers are being discussed.

St Patricks in Gretna is doing a school feasibility study to be finished in April. This information may help us in establishing our own budget and expansion.

READING YOUR WAY TO HEAVEN is a book written by Vicki Burbach, our own Parishioner; an inquiry will be made about a speaking engagement for the Parish.

Kathy Bigelow and Mike Wojtalewicz will be retiring this year from PPC; a request will be placed in the bulletin and also on Facebook for new members. If we know anyone interested, extend an invitation to them. Thanks to Kathy and Mike for their fine work on PPC.

Chris will send out the new member list so PPC can extend a welcome to them. We will start new member meetings after Lent.

The next meeting will be April 27, 2017 in the kitchen at 7:30 pm.

